

Quill is here to help!

The Quill Sales & Support team wants to help you take advantage of stimulus funding through the Emergency Connectivity Fund.¹ The Emergency Connectivity Fund Program (ECF) is funding to help US schools keep students, staff, and patrons connected during the COVID-19 health emergency. The Emergency Connectivity Fund may reimburse qualifying schools and libraries for the reasonable costs of eligible equipment and broadband connections including devices².

Get started today with 3 easy steps:

1 Select a classroom device

Choose from a variety of eligible and affordable Windows classroom devices under $400 USD. Select the right model, specs, and price for your needs.

2 Apply for ECF funds by October 13th, 2021

The deadline to apply for funds for the 2021- 2022 school year is Wednesday, October 13th, 2021. This federal funding² may reimburse qualifying schools for qualifying devices $400 USD/device.

☒ Ensure you are ready to apply  Complete the application

3 Utilize training and services to maximize learning impact

Let our Quill Tech Specialist team assist you with sourcing & pricing ECF eligible products & services. Contact us at quotes@quill.com to get your quote process started!

In addition to our large volume discounts, your CalSave 5% discount on Computer Peripherals & Office Machines will deepen the savings even further!

Quill AEPA contact: Samra Cejvan samra.cejvan@quill.com

¹ The Emergency Connectivity Fund (ECF) is provided by the Federal Communications Commission and is not affiliated with Microsoft. Microsoft makes no representation or guarantee about ECF eligibility.

² See ECF program for terms and conditions.